

Membership Criteria & Benefits

To apply for membership, please fill in and return the appropriate application form along with all necessary supporting forms as well as your cheque made payable to the Canadian Reiki Association in the correct amount. Please carefully review the Membership Criteria listed below before you send in your application. Please note that you need to include a copy of your certificate for each level of Reiki studied along with your application. If for any reason you are unable to send a copy of one or more of your certificates, please send a detailed explanation as to why you cannot send them.

General Membership Criteria

1. Supportive Member: A Supportive Member is someone who is not attuned to Reiki, nor do they wish to be, but they do support the efforts of the Canadian Reiki Association and wish to be a part of the movement. Supportive Members need not sign the CRA Code of Ethics as they do not practice Reiki; therefore, there are no qualifications for supportive members.

Membership Fee $30.00

2. Student Member: To qualify for this level of membership, the applicant must be attuned to Reiki and have taken a Reiki Level I or Reiki First Degree class and be able to produce a copy of their Level I certificate. Student Members must sign and agree to abide by the CRA Code of Ethics and the CRA Disciplinary Action Policy form.

Annual Membership Fee $30.00

Please Note: If a Student Member wishes to continue with their training and eventually apply for Registered Practitioner Membership Level, for a six (6) month period after they receive their Level I certification, they must complete the required practicum. Completion of twenty four (24) practicum forms or a combination of practicum and C.E.U. forms, totaling twenty four (24) hours of practice time is required. C.E.U. forms may be used when attending a CRA hosted Reiki Exchange or when attending a Student Practice Night hosted by a CRA Registered Teacher. Upon completion of the six (6) month practicum period and completion of twenty four (24) hours of practice, the Student Member is eligible to apply for Registered Practitioner Membership Level.

Registered Membership Criteria

3. Registered Practitioner: To qualify as a CRA Registered Practitioner, the applicant will have studied and successfully completed a minimum of Level I or first degree Reiki class and will have completed the required practicum. The practicum requires the applicant to practice for a minimum six (6) months completing a minimum of twenty four (24) hours practice time on "others". Practice time at CRA Teacher hosted practices and CRA hosted Reiki exchanges will count as 2 CEU points towards the required 24 hours. They will submit the required, completed, practicum and CEU forms along with their application and the applicant will sign and abide by the CRA Code of Ethics and the Disciplinary Action Policy form.

If the applicant applying for this level of membership has already graduated from Reiki Levels I, II, III and/or Master, and has been practicing for a minimum of one (1) year, they must supply copies of Certificates for each level of Reiki class they have graduated from and they must supply the CRA with a list of 10 volunteer client case histories for a Level 1 graduate, 20 volunteer client case histories for Level II graduate, 30 volunteer client case histories for a Level III and/or Master graduate. They will submit the required, completed, case study forms along with their application and the applicant will sign and abide by the CRA Code of Ethics and the Disciplinary Action Policy form.

Annual Membership fee: $50.00

Please note: the number of CEU's being used towards achieving the Registered Practitioner Membership level may not be greater than 50% of the required hours ie: if you require 24 hours of practice time then the number of CEU's you will be allowed to use towards the 24 hours will be no greater than 12.

You must do practice sessions with at least 3 different clients when doing your practicum or case studies. You may not accumulate all of your hours doing sessions with the same person and you may not accumulate of your hours with CEU's.

- 4. Registered Teacher: To qualify as a CRA Registered Teacher, the member will have studied and successfully completed the minimum teaching requirements for the style of Reiki they studied which will consist of three (3) or four (4) levels of training depending on Lineage. This will not be less than three (3) levels consisting of a minimum of twenty-eight (28) hours of training in total. The member will have practiced Reiki for a minimum of twice a week for a minimum of one (1) year from the time they received certification as a Reiki Master/Teacher. The member will read, sign and agree to abide by the CRA Code of Ethics. The member will follow the CRA Educational Guidelines and continually support their students by answering questions and be encouraged to host at least one student practice night per month for the purpose of issuing CEU's to student members.

Registered Teacher applicants must submit to the CRA copies of their class outlines in theory and practical for review by the CRA Board. Class outlines must be approved prior to Registered Membership status being granted. Class outlines may be submitted in PDF to membership@reiki.ca or mailed to the CRA. They must also visibly display their CRA designation and their CRA Registration number on every certificate they issue to their students. Example: RT-01-054 will be displayed beside the Teacher's name.

Annual Membership fee: $100.00

Please note: Registered Teacher applicants who are not CRA Registered Practitioners and are applying to be a CRA Registered Teacher "only", you must also abide by the CRA Practitioner Criteria and supply the CRA with 30 volunteer client case histories along with all other requested forms.

Referrals for RP/RT-CRA

Upon request, the CRA will give to the public, the names of Registered Practitioners/Teachers who meet the above criteria, providing the member has given permission. In order to activate this process, a CRA Registered member must fill out and sign the referral section at the bottom of the Code of Ethics and indicate their preferences for the location for treating the client and/or teaching the client.

Listings for RP/RT-CRA at the CRA Internet page (www.reiki.ca)

Registered Practitioners/Teachers meeting the above criteria may list their name, location, phone, email and website at the CRA Registered Teachers page provided they fill out the related permission form available at the web site or from the CRA.

Effective immediately newsletter submissions become the property of the C.R.A. for use in their printed and on-line newsletter. The on-line newsletter will be archived and available to the public for viewing. By submitting an article to the C.R.A. for publication, you agree to the article being available to the general public via the C.R.A website for an infinite time frame.